

TURKEY MASSING.

There Are 40,000 Troops in and Near Palanka, 10 Miles From the Bulgarian Frontier.

WAR A QUESTION OF A FEW DAYS

Great Excitement in the Town of Gnitchewo and the People Are Removing Their Property.

Reported That Insurgents Under Gen. Zontchleff Were Defeated With Great Slaughter Near Meink —Bulgarians Massacred.

London, Sept. 22.—A dispatch from the town of Gutchevo, on the Turco-Bulgarian frontier, to the Daily Mail, reports that great excitement prevails in the district because of a skirmish between Turkish and Bulgarian troops Saturday on the mountain range which forms the boundary line.

The general impression is that war is only a question of a few days, and the people are removing their property from the frontier districts to places of safety.

The dispatch adds that Turkey is massing 40,000 troops in and around Palaska, ten miles from the Bulgarian frontier, against which force the Bulgarians have over 4,000 men at Kostendil.

The Turkish frontier officers, says a dispatch to the Times from Kubitza, Bulgaria, reports that the insurgents under Gen. Zontchleff were defeated, with great slaughter, near Meink, and a great number of Bulgarians were massacred in the neighboring villages, several of which are burning.

Sofia, Bulgaria, Sept. 22.—It is reported that 500 Turks were killed with dynamite while fighting against a body of insurgents in the Kreena defile.

THE CABINET CRISIS.

Nationalist Party and Irish Leaders Are Negotiating.

London, Sept. 22.—The question of the support from the nationalist party for the new fiscal policy of retaliation is said to be the subject of negotiations between the government and the Irish leaders. It is reported that Chief Irish Secretary Kyndham is offering concessions in the shape of a Roman Catholic college at Dublin, while the nationalists, on the other hand, are demanding a measure of local self-government as the price of their support. It appears clear that the nationalists intend to use the cabinet crisis for a lever.

The place formerly belonged to the late Mitchell Henry, M. P., who built the castle. It is one of the noblest, and most romantically situated residences in Ireland. It has often been assigned by rumor as a probably royal residence. It is estimated Mr. Henry spent $2,500,000 in building the castle, and in improving the estate.

HAD A NARROW ESCAPE.

Salvation Men, Mistaken For Revenue Officers, Fired On.

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 22.—A dispatch from Paintsville Monday night says Col. Holtz and his band of Salvation army evangelists were mistaken for revenue men and came near being killed Monday. They had been traveling some distance, and finding no schoolhouses inquired for a crowd and were told by a boy that some men were under the bluff in the valley below. They left the main road and went in search of an audience.

The men were operating a moonshine still, and when the Salvationists approached on horseback and wearing the khaki uniform they were mistaken for revenue officers and two shots were fired at them. The guide realized the trouble, and riding ahead made the moonshiners understand that they were not revenue men, and services were held in the little cabin with the moonshine still.

WOUNDED A SALOONKEEPER.

Capt. Fred L. Gordon Shot Charles Snow at Frankfort.

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 22.—Capt. Fred L. Gordon, of the Frankfort militia company and member of the Frankfort fire company, shot and wounded Charles Snow, a saloonkeeper, shortly after 10 o'clock Monday morning.

Snow was employed in and slept over one of the saloons that was partially destroyed by fire at 3 o'clock Monday morning. He became angry with Gordon after the fire it is said. Later Snow, who was drinking, went to the engine house and asked for Gordon, who was out. A minute later the men met at the corner of Main and St. Clair streets.

Several eye-witnesses say they saw Snow slip an open knife up his sleeve as he approached the corner and that Gordon also saw the knife. Others say Snow had only a pipe in his hand.

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 22.—For the first time in its history the students of the Kentucky University Bible college will be allowed to play football this year. President J. W. THE MILLER CASE.

It Came Up For Informal Discussion in the Executive Council A. F. of L.

THE SESSION WAS HELD IN SECRET

President of the Stereotypers Union Petitioned President Gompers in Favor of the Assistant Foreman.

Central Labor Union of Washington Adopted Resolutions Which Were Sent to the President Urging Miller's Dismissal.

Washington, Sept. 22.—The case of Assistant Foreman W. A. Miller, of the government printing office, who was reinstated in his position by order of President Roosevelt, after he had been dismissed because of his expulsion from the local bookbinders' union, came up for informal discussion at the meeting Monday of the executive council of the American Federation of Labor. No statement could be obtained at the conclusion of Monday's proceedings.

A new feature of the case occurred when President Whitmore of the Stereotypers' union, employed at the government printing office, petitioned President Gompers in favor of Miller, urging him not to give the support of the federation to the petition to President Roosevelt, asking for Miller's removal, sent out as a memorial from the Central Labor union of this city, and which, it is said, President Whitmore characterized as a blunder. President Whitmore is a life-long republican, and also one of the most prominent union men of the city. It is said that some other strong union men at the government printing office will join Mr. Whitmore in his stand.

The Central Labor union of this city Monday night took supplemental action in the case of W. A. Miller and adopted strong resolutions, which were sent to President Roosevelt, urging Miller's dismissal. The union earnestly requests the president to modify his orders of last July to Secretary Cortelyou, in which the president says there must be no discrimination between union and non-union labor, and they further petition that "W. A. Miller, assistant foreman in the bindery of the government printing office, be dismissed, to promote the efficiency of the service, on charges made by the Bookbinders' union, which prove his unfitness for a public servant."

The Preliminary Details Have Been Practically Completed.

Chicago, Sept. 22.—Committees in charge of Chicago's centennial celebration, which begins next Saturday and lasts until the following Thursday night, reported Monday that the preliminary details were practically complete and issued a program for the six days. Monday invitations were sent out for the banquet of mayors, which takes place at the Auditorium on Thursday night, October 1. More than 3,000 invitations have been issued for the daughters of the American Revolution reception, at which many of the members will appear in gowns of a hundred years ago.

On Saturday night the centennial managers will give a reproduction of the burning of the city in 1871 in a unique display of red fire. One hundred tons of the inflammable material will blaze from the roofs of several scores of the tallest buildings in the downtown districts and for 30 minutes the city will seem to be struggling with a disaster similar to that which resulted in almost total destruction 32 years ago. The scene, judging from tests recently made on one of the high buildings, will be thrilling to the extreme and the display will surely prove an awe-inspiring spectacle.

As a usual thing, steamers leaving Puget sound for the Atlantic coast stop either at San Francisco or some of the South American ports for coal. These stops the Texan will not make unless it be on account of an accident. She has taken on 4,100 tons of coal at this port, and that amount is expected to see her into the Atlantic port.

JETT ON THE STAND

Said That at the Time of the Shooting He Was in Hargis' Store.

OTHER WITNESSES FOR DEFENSE.

The Taking of Testimony Will End Tuesday Morning and the Arguments Will Begin.

It Is Possible a Verdict May Be Reached By Tuesday Night If the Jury Easily Agree—Jett's Mother Broke Down.

Cynthiana, Ky., Sept. 22.—In the case of Curtis Jett, on trial for alleged assassination of Jim Cockrill at Jackson, Ky., July 21, 1902, Curt Jett was placed on the stand in his own behalf Monday morning. He said that at the time of the shooting he was in Hargis Bros.' store and then went across the street to find out about it and went into the courthouse and then immediately went to Hargis' store and upstairs in a room with James Hargis, King Ford, Ed Callahan and Doug. Hayes. At the time of the shooting he was talking to Jesse Spicer and Lish Noble. He was trying to find out who did the shooting and it seemed to come from the courthouse. Jett's mother was crying when he went on the stand. This is the first time in either trial here that she has ever shown any emotion whatever.

The defense to prove an alibi for Jett placed Newt Campbell, Doug Hayes, James Brophy and Cash Williams on the stand, and all swore that Jett at the time of the shooting was in Hargis Bros.' store. Rev. M. Whiners' testimony for the defense was of no material value. J. I. Blanton, attorney for the defendant, read his own affidavit of what the following absent witnesses would swear to, and the absent ones were as follows: Bill Britton, Matt Spencer, Bob White, Dan White, Alex Spencer, Spencer Robbins, Henry Horn, Roger Spicer and Ed Callahan, and all these would swear that Jett at the time of the firing of the shot was at Hargis Bros.' store. King Ford would swear that he at the time of the firing of the shot was in Hargis Bros.' store with Judge J. H. Hargis, Sheriff Callahan and Jett. When the shots were fired he came upstairs and Hargis told him (Jett) to go over to the courthouse and close the doors and not allow any one to pass either in or out of the courthouse.

G. W. Atkinson said he attended Cockrill after being shot and he (Cockrill) said he did not know who shot him.

Mr. Blanton asked to have court adjourned until Tuesday morning, as he desired to have only one more witness and then the defense would rest the case. The commonwealth has three witnesses on rebuttal. The arguments for the case will begin Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock and they will take up the whole of the day. It is possible that a verdict may be reached by Tuesday night, if the jury easily agree.

It's likely that Mr. Belknap would have carried Lewis without making a visit to that stronghold of Republicanism.

The party that persistently opposes the punishment of assassins is certainly not a safe one to entrust with the Governorship.

The plank in the Republican platform against assassination was made necessary by the overt act of that party's own leaders a few years ago.

That offer of $500 to publish the testimony in the Caleb Powers case hasn't yet been accepted by the Cincinnati Times-Star. The T.-S. is not anxious for its readers to know the facts.

MANY TRAINED ANIMALS.

Clever Performances By Horses, Elephants and Other Animals.

A great many animals have been trained to perform tricks, but it is gravely to be doubted if ever before such a remarkable number of educated beasts were seen together as those in Barnum & Bailey's Greatest Show on Earth. Animals of diametrically opposite natures have been taught to perform together in harmony. To see a lot of ferocious brutes in clever tricks, is but another proof of the wonderful power of man over the animal world. This is only one of the many wonderful sights in the show this year. A grand equestrian act has been arranged in which nearly one hundred trained horses perform at one time in three rings; three herds of elephants at another time occupy the three rings and do wonderful things, while scores of other trained beasts are seen at other times in the performance of clever feats. The sixteen champion riders comprise all the best equestrian talent in the world; while the equestrian tournament, leaping and tumbling contests, menageries, curious big and dwarf creatures, cages of wild beasts, the midway, with the queer musicians, jugglers, and magicians, the giant, the midget, and collection of freaks and other features, are of such a wonderful variety and magnitude as to prove simply bewildering. The street parade, too, is composed of novelties, and many huge allegorical chariots, one of which is drawn by a wonderful forty-horse team driven by one man. Everything will be here Wednesday, October 7th.

BANKERS OF KENTUCKY

Invited by Exhibit Association to hold the 1904 Meeting at Kentucky Building on World's Fair Grounds

During the eleventh annual meeting of the Kentucky Bankers' Association held at Hopkinsville last week, an invitation was extended to the organization by the Kentucky Exhibit Association, through its Secretary, to hold the meeting next year in the Kentucky State Building at the World's Fair in St. Louis.

As the next place of meeting is already settled by the Executive Committee the invitation was referred to it. The sentiment of the bankers present favored the acceptance of the invitation by the committee, so the next meeting of Kentucky's heads of financial institutions will most likely be held at the exposition grounds in the Mound City.

The Bankers' Association was the first organization in the State to endorse the movement inaugurated by the Kentucky Exhibit Association, looking to the erection of a Kentucky Building and full display of the State's products and resources at the great World's Fair in 1904. The resolution adopted then provided for the appointment of a committee to help raise the fund for the purpose. The report of the work done by the committee during the year was made by the Secretary of the Exhibit Association at the Hopkinsville meeting. It showed that fifty banks and trust companies have already subscribed, the amounts ranging from $15 to $500, according to the capitalization of the institution. The total so far received from the bankers was reported at $1,000, so it may be said that a large part of the Kentucky Building at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition is "part theirs."

At the conclusion of the report, all bankers present who represented concerns who had not contributed to the fund were asked to take up the matter immediately on their return home with their boards of directors. It is believed that before the subscription list of the Exhibit Association closes at least $2,000 more will be contributed by banks and trust companies not in the list at this time.

The railroad rates in effect during the World's Fair will be so low from Kentucky points that the trip can be made cheaper to St. Louis than to any city or town in the State where the 1904 meeting might be held. The visit to St. Louis will also have many inducements to offer, for everyone wants to see the exposition. There is hardly any doubt about the attendance being the largest in the history of the association on this account.

Redden, of this city, and is an accomplished and talented lecturer, having won scores of friends during her travels throughout the State. POPULAR OFFICIAL PROMOTED.

Mr. E. H. Binzel to Take Charge of the L. and N.'s Business at Paris November 1st.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Binzel will learn with sincere regret that they are soon to leave Maysville.

Mr. Binzel has been appointed passenger and freight agent of the L. and N. at Paris and will enter upon his new position there November 1st. He has had charge of the company's business at this point for a number of years, and has proved one of the most popular agents ever in charge of the Maysville end of this great railroad system. His transfer comes as a promotion, as the Paris agency pays more and is a more important one, two branches of the system connecting at that point.

While the friends of this clever and ever courteous and accommodating gentleman regret to see him leave Maysville, yet they feel that his transfer to Paris means eventually something still better for him at the hands of the company.

Mr. Binzel will succeed Mr. Frank B. Carr, who is to take charge of the company's agency at Lexington. It is not known yet who will be appointed to the Maysville agency, but a host of friends hope to see Mr. Charles J. Collins promoted to the position. The company could find no more worthy young man.

Mrs. O. B. Stitt announces her fall and winter millinery opening for Thursday, Oct. 1st.

A. O. U. W. will meet this evening at 7:30. Communication from Grand Lodge at importance.

A lot of chinaware found in Newport by the police has been identified as the property of Mr. and Mrs. John Schnelle, of Dover. The dishes and a lot of carpet were intrusted to a negro man who sold the carpet and abandoned the rest of the goods.

While Mr. and Mrs. John C. Adamson and children, of Nashville, were returning home last week after a visit at Germantown, their little daughter, Louise, had the misfortune to meet with a very painful accident. A car window fell on one of her hands, mashing the middle finger.

F. G. Berger and T. H. O'Neil have organized a novel company which is to tour this country in that odd play, "Dare Devil Dorothy." The play itself is of strong dramatic interest depicting an intensely beautiful love story, interspersed with musical numbers, dancing, etc. "Dare Devil Dorothy" is now in the third year in England, turning people away at every engagement. The date of this attraction at Washington Opera House is Sept. 24th. Seats on sale Wednesday morning, at Ray's.
